

The athletic woman is the wo-man of the day. The past twenty has seen wonderful pro-gress in this re-spect. That this tendency will re-sult in a more ro-bast womanhood, better able to bear better able to bear the burdens and duties and pleas-ures of life, there can be no ques-tion. But this result will be ac-complished by the building up of those women already in reasonably robust health, and the killing off of their

A letter from Camp Alger to the Fair fax Herald says. It seems to be generally agreed that the Third regiment will soon be mustered out. This will be in accordance with the wishes of about ninety per cent. of the men. Their object in volunteering was to assist in the successful prosecution of the war, and now that the war is over the men feel that they should be permitted to resume their civil occupanous. They were not a lot of tramps, in search of a job of any kind and at any price. They are respectable, industrious men, and it is to their credit that they should prefer to follow useful avocations rather than lead the life of a soldier in time of peace. Many of them have felt keeply the restrictions but have been thrown around them They say they volunteered to fightnot to be confined as prisoners and accorded no privileges whatever Their remarks along this line are fr quently entertaining and amus-ing. Some say they would not, after wille others say that, so far from signing another muster roll, they would no at ach il eir signatures to a notel register. But, notwithstanding all these numerous expressions, if the necessity stose and active service was assured tally ninety-five per cent. of the reg eut would respond to a call to arms It has been their misfortune, and not their fault, that they have had no ser vice at the front.

One day last week two nurses fought over a dying man at the division hos-pital at Camp Aiger. It seems that the ence of the other patients to die in a separate tent. The two nurses were said to have been under the influence of liquor and fought about a cigarette. In the very presence of death. A detail was sent from the Third Virginia to arrest the men, and they were punished with four days' extra duty. They were not from Virginia, hence the Washington papers had nothing to say about the disgraceful affair.

The following explains itself: To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Amos McQuiston, well-known as the brated makes, "Zero" and "walking chimney builder," was found murdered on his farm in Texas last April. He lived alone and always "Baldwin." Fully guaranteed. claimed to have no "near kin." JAMES B. GOFF & SON. Austin, Texas, Aug. 23, 1898. AN ENGLISH OPINION OF AMERICA. The London Saturday Review, which recently said that Chauncey Depew was "a painted puppet and a snob," expresses the views given below, which candid expression is being quoted in English financial and other newspapers averse to American interests in Great Britian and to English interests embarked in America:

"There are of course, many worthy private persons in the United States; but what we have to think of now are the people of that country as represented in their social, civil, and political customs. Socially, it is sordid to the last degree; its courts of law and all its civil institutions are corrupt; the methods of its political parties are no better than those of long-firms. It has con-tributed nothing to the self-respect of humanity. On the contrary, it has shown all the world to what a depth of public depravity civilization is capable of descending." of descending."
